UNITED NATIONS
NAMIBIA

Office of the Resident Coordinator

01 April 2019

Dear Ambassador Ashipala-Musavyi,

Subject: Launch of a major recruitment exercise towards building a roster of Strategic Planners and Economists for the Resident Coordinator Offices

As per of the ongoing UN reform process, I wish to inform you that the Development Coordination Office (DCO) of the United Nations has launched a major recruitment drive to build a roster of Strategic Planners and Economists to serve in one of the 131 Resident Coordinator Offices around the world.

As the United Nations is very keen to have strong candidates given the role of these offices in support of UN Country Teams, the aim is to circulate these vacancies as widely as possible. While all vacancies of the Development Coordination Office can be found at <https://careers.un.org>, the specific advertisements for the Strategic Planners and Economists can be accessed at the following links:
